1941 HISTORY OF BENNETT SCHOOL, SUPERIOR TOWNSHIP, WASHTENAW COUNTY, MICHIGAN, ADDENDUM

By Marcia McCrary

The initial article slated to run in this issue of Capers was a transcription of the 1941 History of Bennett School. In 1940, the County Commissioner of Schools, Julius W. Haas, requested that all the one-room school houses in Washtenaw County write up a history of their facility. These histories are found at the Bentley Library, in the Washtenaw Intermediate School District collection. In Superior Township there were ten one-room schools. I had been working on the transcription of the History of Bennett School and I had a couple of names that I could not decipher, although the handwriting was very good, so I googled my guess at the spelling of one of them, Jas. F. Rounsiper. Imagine my surprise to find a link to a transcription of that exact school history on the "Deep Blue" website, https://deepblue.lib.umich.edu/static/about/index.html. Deep Blue is a University of Michigan Library website designed to preserve the work of students and staff. A quick perusal revealed that this website is an excellent source of a wide range of material and you may want to check it for information about the area of Washtenaw County in which you are particularly interested. Although I was excited to find the Deep Blue website, it did mean I had to rethink and replan my article. Since I have a direct connection to Superior Township and to Bennett School, I decided to combine some of the interesting notes from the history report with some additional remembrances, experiences, and research to develop a "new" lead article.

My interest in the township is a result of living in the township, and my husband has resided there since 1942. An interesting side note is the fact that his parents had just built a home in a subdivision north of Clark Road (Ypsilanti Township) where the Green Oaks Golf Course is now. They no sooner finished the house, when the government informed them that their land and their neighbors' land was needed to provide housing for the Willow Run Bomber Plant workers. They received enough money for that house to buy twelve acres not too far from the school. My husband, Bob, attended Bennett school from 1942 to 1951, starting the year after the aforementioned school history was written.

Bennett was identified as School District #6 in Betty Meyer's article "In the Beginning: The School Districts" found on the Superior Township webpage (https://superiortownship.org/ click on "About", then look for School Districts). Betty is a longtime resident of Superior Township. She noted that Bennett was built in 1913 on the northeast corner of Geddes and LeForge Road, which is in Section 28. She also said it operated until 1961. I remember when it was burned in January 1993. Our neighbor across the street, Bob Eberts, was president of the school board when it closed.

The history covers where the school was located and who it was named for. The Bennett family (not for Harry Bennett of Henry Ford fame who lived further west on Geddes Rd.) lived next to the schoolhouse, and the children hauled water from the Bennett farm until a well was provided. Several interesting stories were included in the history such as one about the stone boat that Mrs. Bennett rode to town on, in her specially reinforced chair, and why teacher Hiram Bacon had to have the students climb in through the window the day after he lent his keys to his brother who substituted for him. The history was written by Betty Wilbanks, the only eighth grader in the school in 1941. Much of the material included was provided by Isabelle Lambie Scotney, who had been a student, and a teacher at the school. My husband remembers Mrs. Scotney driving to town in her buggy on the way to the library, and her black walnut cakes. She grew up around the corner on Clark Road, graduated from Michigan State Normal School (now Eastern Michigan University) in 1885, and was a relative of Foster Fletcher (one of the founders of the Ypsilanti archives.) Mrs. Scotney's mother was Mary Campbell Lambie, related to the Campbells of Cobblestone Farm on Packard Road in Ann Arbor.

Attached to the handwritten history was a page with two pictures, one of Bennett School in 1941, identifying Mrs. Ruth Campbell as the teacher. The other shows five children next to Bennett School:

In 1993, my husband and I hosted a reunion of Bennett School students, mostly from the 1940s and 1950s. One teacher attended, Mrs. Regetz who taught at Bennett from 1936 to 1937. Many stories were shared that day: Bob Engel jumping out the window and being chased by Mrs. Cox with a broom; Bob McCrary finding a baby skunk on the way to school, and not knowing what to do with it (he says), it ended up in the teacher's desk; Mary Lou Block having a pet lamb that followed her to school; and the kids stealing a watermelon from Farmer Grapp, but when they went to apologize at the teacher's insistence (she had eaten some before she knew where it came from) the farmer told them that was why he planted the patch near the school, so they could have some.

The transcription of the 1941 history written of Bennett was contributed to Deep Blue by Karl Williams who has done a great deal of work on Superior Township (you may remember his name from my article in Family History Capers vol. 41, issue 3, page 43 from Spring, 2018 on burial transit permits). Karl's wife was the clerk of Superior Township for many years. He has self-published a group of pamphlets about Superior including United Memorial Gardens and other cemeteries, the officers of the township, the road names, the 1838 tax roll, and more topics. Additionally, Karl Williams has indexed the names in the "Minutes of the Board of School Inspectors of Superior Township, 1851-1911", one place to find this is in our GSWC/LDS Library under the title "Name Index Of the Minutes of the Board of School Inspectors..."

Other sources of material on Bennett School and Superior Township include the Treasurer's book for 1912–1954 which is located at the Ypsilanti Historical Society Archives on Huron Street in Ypsilanti; and three books which cover Superior Township, Of Dixboro, Lest We Forget by Carol Willits Freeman; Gertrude Hiscock Nanry's Lest It Be Forgotten and Ina V. Hanel's Superior Township, Washtenaw County, Michigan Historic Resources Inventory.

As with many paths in genealogy research there may be some unexpected detours. Although I was unable to complete the initial plan of publishing a transcription of the Bennett School history, the surprise detour resulted in some happy remembrances and a new website resource.

ROBERT CAMPBELL FAMILY BIBLE RECORD

This Bible record is from the Louis White collection at the Ypsilanti Historical Society Museum & Archives. Louis White was the first historian for the City of Ypsilanti from 1934 to 1963. Mr. White copied several family histories including Bible records. This Bible was in the possession of Mrs. William H. Scotney at the time the record was copied in 1937. Mrs. Scotney was the daughter of Mary (Campbell) Lambie, eldest child of Robert Campbell. The Ypsilanti Historical Society has kindly granted permission to the Genealogical Society of Washtenaw County to publish the record.

[Ed. Note: Louis White appended to the Bible record additional information for the children of Robert Campbell which he notes was told to him by Mrs. Scotney and from his records. The additions follow the record.]

REV. FRIEDRICH SCHMID'S BAPTISMAL RECORDS, 1833–1874, WASHTENAW COUNTY, MICHIGAN
(Part Twenty-Two)

Translated & transcribed by Rob and Cyndy Steward, 2020

The original records of Rev. Friedrich Schmid are currently housed and may be accessed in The Michigan Historical Collections, Bentley Historical Library, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan.

Please note that the handwriting of Rev. Schmid is not easily deciphered, in part due to his penmanship. The records contain entries written in old German script and some using English script. In addition, the pages in his records are not numbered. It is our understanding that he kept notes as he traveled and then entered them into his record books when he returned home. This may explain that while the records are fairly complete there are some gaps or omissions.

We have maintained the spelling Rev. Schmid used in the case of names. Items enclosed in parentheses are usually comments or notes of the translators or indicate alternate spellings. The term "geb." in relation to a female name, refers to "born as" or maiden name. A "+" at the beginning or end of a line indicates the person is deceased. "Unehl." indicates that the parents were not married to each other at the time of the baptism.

Rev. Schmid's Baptismal Records are in column format as follows:
(Left hand pages – a.) "Chronological Number" of the child for that particular year; Name of Child; Parents Names; Place; Birth Date.
(Right hand pages – b.) Baptismal Date and Place; Sponsors Names (sometimes marital status or relationship of the sponsors are listed).
Columns with no entry or missing information are indicated by three hyphens (---).

LIST OF WASHTENAW COUNTY PHYSICIANS RETURNED BY ASSESSOR, 1901

Transcribed by Pam Gibb

In the collection titled, "Washtenaw County Records 1824–1946" at the Bentley Historical Library, University of Michigan, there is a county assessor book which was used to report a list of the Washtenaw County physicians in 1901. The Bentley Historical Library has granted the Genealogical Society of Washtenaw County permission to print a transcription of the record. The original record did not contain complete data for each physician and there are a few instances where a physician was recorded twice.

[Editor's note: The names of the female physicians were recorded with their own personal initials for given and middle names even though the initials are followed by "Mrs."]

ZION LUTHERAN CHURCH CONFIRMATIONS 1903–1904, ANN ARBOR, MICHIGAN

Abstracted by Judi Bornemeier

The following is an abstract of the confirmations for the years 1903–1904 recorded in a Zion Lutheran Church, Ann Arbor, Michigan record book labeled 1894–1924 Baptisms, Confirmation, Marriages, Funerals. The book is part of the Zion Lutheran Church Ann Arbor, Michigan Records, 1833–1981 collection at the Bentley Historical Library, University of Michigan and these confirmation records were abstracted and printed with permission from Bentley Historical Library as well as Zion Lutheran Church. Column headings in the book are in German but have been translated to English for this abstract, other entries in German remain as written. The abstract maintains the recorded spelling of names and places, punctuation use was inconsistent. A "+" by the name was used by the church to indicate the person is deceased. [Editor note: In the 1903 confirmations, parent names were not recorded and entries 50–64 are noted as English Division and only contain name and birth date.]

Confirmation Date: Palm Sunday, 5 April 1903 [Pastor name not given]
